

Write a Winter Haiku!

According to Merriam-Webster, a haiku is “an unrhymed verse form of Japanese origin having three lines containing usually five, seven, and five syllables respectively.” In addition, a poem in this form typically has “a seasonal reference.”

Using the template below, write your own haiku about winter! What about the natural world do you notice as the season changes?

(5 syllables)

(7 syllables)

(5 syllables)

Illustration © by Tina Macnaughton 2006.